

Ask for Your Responding the Course Review in the first semester and second quarter

The Nagasaki University conducts the Course Review in all classes including practical subjects.

This “Course Review” is intended to give you the opportunity of reviewing your learning in the class as well as to improve faculty’s lectures and university education. The aggregate results of each class and feedback from the faculty are available in the syllabus system after a certain period of time.

Please access the Course Review site of the NU-Web system, and answer the questions.

Your answers will NOT affect any grading. We kindly ask for your cooperation.

Please note that this email is sent to students who are eligible for the first semester and second quarter survey. In the unlikely event that this is not the case, please be patient.

Classes surveyed: All classes offered in the first semester and second quarter (including practical subjects)

Time for response: July 19, Tue to August 22, Mon

How to access: Log in from the NU-Web system, go to “Questionnaire” and then “Course Review”.

Course Review reminder emails and LACS alerts

A reminder email will be sent 14 days before the end of the course review, and an alert will appear in LACS (see left) 7 days before the end of the course review.

You will not be able to respond to course review from LACS.

※Click on the tab marked "LACS" in the upper left corner (to the right of the "Unanswered Questionnaire" tab) and the alert will disappear.

※It will take some time for the responses to the course review to be reflected in this alert. If you have already answered all the questions, please be patient. The alert will disappear after a certain period of time.
